EDITORIAL POLICY

The Journal is interested in considering work that includes, but is by no means limited to:

- Empirical analyses, case studies, or doctrinal comparisons treating common labor, employment, or social security issues in two or more countries.
- Treatment of theoretical, methodological, or historical issues in comparative labor law or comparative employment and social policy.
- Scholarship on mixed systems of law or of supranational legal regulation.
- Analysis of legislative, administrative, or judicial developments in a single country that has transnational implications or that relate to potential international trends.
- Discussion of economic, social, or cultural aspects of the portability of legal rules or policy approaches.

The Journal should wish to consider publishing not only articles, book reviews, and essays, but as a means of broadening awareness and stimulating debate would also be pleased to consider:

- Important extracts or summary conclusions of recent studies funded by foundations, governments, and international organizations, especially in advance of the appearances of the full reports.
- Chapters from published or unpublished dissertations, Festschriften, and other specialized compendia that might not otherwise be known to the Journal's worldwide readership.
- Speeches, conference papers, or translations of significant works not appearing in English.
- Detailed bibliographies on comparative issues in labor law, employment policy, or social security.

ADVICE ON SUBMISSIONS

Comparative Labor Law & Policy Journal is professionally edited and refereed. Manuscripts will ordinarily be submitted anonymously for comment of experts in the field. Authors will be notified when the editors believe that the submission would benefit from such evaluation; they will be expected to revise in light of the reviewers' recommendations. Submission to an external review must be understood to give the Journal a right of first refusal to the manuscript.

Manuscripts must be submitted in English. Articles should ordinarily be from 5,000 to 12,000 words (twenty to fifty double-spaced, typed pages). PLEASE NOTE THAT - CONSISTENT WITH THE PRACTICE OF PROFESSIONALLY EDITED PUBLICATIONS - MULTIPLE SUBMISSIONS ARE NOT ACCEPTED. If accepted for publication, the article may be edited for purposes of fluency and comprehension.

All manuscripts should be submitted on 8½" x 11" paper (double spaced with wide margins) or as an attachment in e-mail, sent in Word format. Footnotes should conform to the Uniform System of Citations commonly used in U.S. schools of law. Submissions should be directed to:
